RE: SALT FESTIVAL

Dear teachers,

The staff at Big Bone Lick State Park would like to invite you to join us in celebrating the 25th anniversary Salt Festival, this October 15, 2010.

In the past, the Salt Festival has been a unique opportunity for area students to interact with the history of Northern Kentucky and the role in our country's early exploration. Last year over 1,500 students and chaperones registered and came out to the Salt Festival. Students participated in tomahawk throwing, atlatl throwing, arts and crafts, pottery making, as well as pioneer demonstrations and games pertaining to Kentucky's frontier heritage. This year the focus is expanding the festival even further to bring in more demonstrations. The best of the old Salt Festival is being kept, while many more educational opportunities are being added.

Enclosed you will find an event flyer and registration form. Please complete the information and return it to the park with appropriate payment for your group. Deadline for Registration is Friday, October 1st, and the staff hopes you can join us for what is sure to be a memorable learning experience for your class. Once we receive your registration, we will return to you a confirmation letter with your festival schedule and passes.

We look forward to your visit and wish you an enjoyable and rewarding educational experience at this year's Salt Festival. If you have any questions don't hesitate to call Donna Duley, our school group coordinator, at (859) 384-3522.

Sincerely,

Todd Young
